

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 11. 1713.

London, April 11.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland and Flanders.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 18.

Milan, April 4.

We have received Advice by an Express from Genoa, that the Empress has landed at San Pietro d' Arena: Her Imperial Majesty is expected here the 8th Instant. Some Advices from Rome tell us, that the Pope has caused the antient Archives to be searched, for the Donation formerly made of the Kingdom of Sardinia to the Holy See, in Order (tis said) to alledge Ground for protesting against the Cession about to be made of that Island to the Elector of Bavaria.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 15.

Madrid, March 27. Within a few Days the King caused a Decree to be published against the Bishop of Barcelona, by which all his Ministers and Councils are forbid to own him in the Quality of Cardinal, or to permit him to enter Spain, and his Revenues are confiscated. His Majesty has formed a Council to examine the Differences between this Court and that of Rome, and the Means which might be used to terminate them. That Council is composed of the Cardinal del Giudice President, Father Robinet the King's Confessor, Father Blanco a Dominican, the grand Vicar of Madrid, the Curate of the Parish of St. Andrew, and of Don Miguel Francisco Guerra, Don Francisco de Arana, and Don Garcia de Araci, all three of the Royal Council. The Portuguese Troops which marched from Catalonia, are arrived in Portugal, where a general Reform is made, and the Troops reduced to the Foot they were before the War. The Bishop of Vich is arrived here, having accepted the Amnesty which the King caused to be published the Seventh of January last. The King has nominated the Duke de Popoli, Captain of a Troop of the Life-Guards, Captain General of Catalonia, and he has Order to put himself on the March the 5th of April, with an Army of 15000 Foot and 5000 Horse, under 5 Lieutenant-Generals, and 6 Major-Generals. Don Joseph Patinno is to be Intendant of the Army, whither all the subaltern Officers are ordered to repair forthwith. All the Dispositions are made for the Pay and Subsistence of the Army, for which Magazines are provided far on in Catalonia. His Majesty has given the Government of Tarragona to the Marquis de Caylus, that of Cardona to the Count de Ersel, that of Girone to Don Tiberio Carrasco, and the Government of Arms in Barcelona to the Baron de Capres. They write from Cadiz, that they had Advice there that the Ships which sailed from thence the end of December 1711, for the Rio de la Plata, arrived at Buenos Ayrez the 20th of March 1712.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 18.

Paris, April 14. The Duke d' Ossuna having taken Leave of the King the 11th Instant, set out the 12th for Utrecht, his costly Equipage and most of his Servants having been sent down the Seine last Week for Holland. The King designs to go the 24th for Rambouillet, to reside there some Days, and when he comes back will take a Review of his Life-Guards and other Troops of his Household. This Morning the Chevalier de Beringhen, Son of the Marquis of that Name, coming Express from Utrecht, passed through this City in his Way to Verailles, with the welcome News that at Length on Tuesday last at Night the Plenipotentiaries of England, Portugal, Holland, Prussia, and Savoy Signed the Peace with our King, but that the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperour and Empire could not be prevailed upon to do it. The Joy shewn here for the Conclusion of the Peace cannot be described. By Letters and by divers Gentlemen who came this Afternoon from Versailles we learn, that the Court was filled with Joy for the Arrival of the Chevalier de Beringhen with the News of the Peace, and Couriers were instantly dispatched with it to King Philip and the Elector of Bavaria. 'Tis now said the Marshal d' Harcourt will in a few Days set out for Strasbourg. The Marquis de Sully Lieutenant-General lost a great Law-Suit last Week, which had been carried on above a hundred Years, for an Estate in Picardy, and he is condemned to pay Costs which amount to 100000 Crowns.

From the Hague Courant, dated April 19.

Brussels, April 17. Count Fels having received repeated Orders to be in a readines to march with the Imperial Troops to the Rhine, the Officers are very diligently preparing for the March. On Friday last Count Tilly arrived here from Liege, and the 15th in the Evening his Excellency having received Orders from the Hague by an Express, caused Proclamation to be made, that the Peace being concluded, all Hostilities were were to cease. The Towns of Namur, Luxembourg, Ypres, and Charleroy are to be evacuated by the French, and to take in Dutch Garrisons; and on the other Hand the States-General are to give up to France Lille, Bethune, Aire, and St. Venant. This Morning, by Order from the States, General Dops set out for the Hague.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 18.

Hague, April 16. M. Scheltus, Secretary of their High Mightyesses Ambassy to the Congress at Utrecht, arrived here the 12th at 9 a Clock at Night, with the Treaties of Peace and Commerce between France and this Republick: Whereupon the 13th at Noon the State's Trumpets and Kettle-Drums sounded, towards the Evening the Bells were rung, and several Volleys of Cannon and small Arms on the Vivier, where the Garrison stood drawn up in Arms. The 14th the States sent the said Treaties to the respective Provinces, and the 15th to the Towns of this Province. Their High Mightyesses have thought fit to thank their Ambassadors extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, for their Care, Zeal, and good Conduct in the Negotiations of the Peace, &c.

Hague, April 18. On Saturday last Count Sinzendorf set out from Utrecht for Francfort; the Count de Corsana has followed him, as has also Baron Kirchner, so that none but the Secretary of the Imperial Ambassy is left at Utrecht; the Ministers of the Empire who were at Utrecht are gone away likewise, the Negotiation with the Emperour and Empire being intirely broken off, and nothing seems now to be thought on but carrying on a vigorous War on the Rhine: The Time for the Campaign being so near, we shall soon learn what Dispositions for it are made on both Sides: Mean while the Ministers of France will remain at Utrecht, where the Duke d' Ossuna, Ambassador of the King of Spain, arrived this Morning. 'Tis said the Treaties of Peace and Commerce concluded between the most Christian King and the States-General will not be made publick till after the Ratifications are exchanged.
